MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELEE'S Wine of Cardui

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Danville, Texas, says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Born, November 17, to Mrs. Evert Steele, a daughter.

J. B. Bowles, merchant, of Big Sandy, was up Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. Morris has gone to Big Sandy to visit relatives.

The Woodmen held an interesting meeting Tuesday evening.

J. E. Totty has been in declining health for some time, due to rheumatism.

Yesterday was Thanksgiving, but it was just like any other old day at Camden.

Wait for the holiday announcement of G. W. Arnold in the next issue of THE CHRONICLE.

It is about time to plan for the annual entertainment for the little folks during the holidays.

It might be interesting to know where Santa Claus will establish his headquarters this year.

After a visit of several weeks at Camden and Waverly John Hooper left Saturday for Chicago, his home.

Hayes Brown, colored, and Harvey Garrett exchanged a few blows in Saunders' livery stable Friday evening. No arrests.

E. H. Florence, who has been residing in Texas the past year, has returned home and will be content to remain in old Benton.

A. M. Spicer and family, of Missouri, passed through here Sunday going to Springfield. The family formerly resided in this county.

Mrs. Ollie Lashlee and daughter, Miss Mattie, who went to Gainesville, Tex., last spring to visit relatives and friends, returned home Tuesday evening.

Game suppers are the latest fad with Camden society people, and some of the young men find steady employment in supplying game for the entertainments.

A. J. Fuller and William McGee were summoned before the United States commissioner at Paris last Saturday to testify in a cause in which Enoch Perkins, colored, is charged with selling liquor without licence. The latter is held for trial in the federal court at Jackson.

The time for the biennial agitation of the corporation question is drawing near. Permit us to make a prediction: Should the town be rechartered, it will be a much more difficult matter to have it abolished than it has been in the past. We could give several reasons for taking this view, but think the situation is generally understood.

The ladies of Camden have formed a taste for 'possum hunting this fall, and it is no unusual sight to see a bevy of the fair sex chaperoned by married ladies and a few boys for guides saily forth in the twilight of evening, and although they are not always successful in capturing the festive 'possum, they are rapidly becoming accomplished pedestriennes.

A terrific gale set in here Monday, which threatened to develop a cyclone. A part of the front of F. A. McElyea's shop was blown out and some other damage occurred in town. In the country a great deal of timber was destroyed, and some of the roads leading to town were rendered almost impassable by it. This was followed by a cold wave that seems to have come to stay.

Humor is often very suggestive of truth. For instance: On delivering a package of "tanglefoot" recently the purchaser was cautioned by a walking "blind tiger" to keep strictly mum on such matters, and received this reply: "You are in no danger; don't be uneasy; the 'revenoos' can not interfere with a man for selling water." When informed that ten indictments had been found against a citizen of the town conspicuous for his absence, the same artist remarked that it would have been more consistent to make the number five, as the "stuff" sold was half water, and no court in christendom could fine a man for selling water.

Rev. B. F. Thompson, Christian minister, will begin a series of sermons at the Presbyterian Church this evening at 7.00 o'clock. Song services at 6.30 o'clock.

P. W. T. Potts, of Garfield, brother of our townsman, U. A. Potts, has located at Camden and formed a partnership with F. E. McElyea in the blacksmith business.

C. V. Hawley, H. H. Rogers, E. L. Hudson, Henry Fryer and M. D. McElyea left Tuesday for the Mouth of Sandy on a hunting expedition. They carried a complete camping outfit, and will remain until Saturday.

Miss Mable Fuller gave an enjoyable entertainment to the young people at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fuller, last night. Refreshments were served, and merry games were indulged in until a late hour.

The returns from Henry County show that Representative-elect A. P. Lashlee received a very complimentary vote, leading nearly the entire ticket. He did a great deal of work across the line and materially aided in arousing the latent patriotism of the Henry County Democracy, which is appreciated by leading Democrats there. Like Blaine of Credit Mobilier fame, Hawley is in a position to exclaim "Save me from my friends."

Rev. T. F. Cason returned from Paducah Tuesday. His pastoral services here having expired by limitation, he goes to another field of work, and left yesterday afternoon for Woodville, Ky. Brother Cason has served his church here four years, and to say that he has given satisfaction as pastor can not be expressed with the emphasis he deserves. No man has ever occupied a higher position in the confidence, esteem and respect of the people of Camden of every denomination, and general regret is felt that he can not remain and continue in the work here. But wherever he may go the best wishes of the people of Camden will accompany him.

A stranger drove through town Tuesday afternoon of last week, and as he answered the description of a telephone message received a short time previously from Cairo to be on the lookout for such a man and arrest and hold him, Sheriff E. E. Fry with O. P. Lashlee overhauled him a few miles east of here and held him until the arrival of the chief of police of Cairo who carried the man to that place. He was arrested at the instance of a livery firm at Cairo, who claim that the prisoner hired the horse and buggy for a short trip to the country, but crossed the river and was leaving the State and country with their property.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Editor—I desire first of all to thank you for many favors and constant courtesy during these four years; you have kindly lent me space at any time I requested it.

Through your columns I desire to speak this once again to all my friends in Benton County. To the local preachers, stewards, Sunday school superintendents, exhorters, class leaders and trustees, as official members of Camden circuit, I hereby endeavor to express my sincere gratitude for their sympathy, forbearance and uniform support both private and public. To which the results accomplished are attributable.

To every member of the church, young and old, I tender my thanks. To the members of other churches I acknowledge myself largely indebted for constant and cordial kindness. To many a friend outside of any church, I am likewise indebted.

To one and all, I give unstinted thanks for the associations and benedictions that have made these four years so pleasant to myself and family, and I trust mutually profitable.

May the God of all grace be with you, and grant to us all to meet in that far better world.

Yours,
T. F. CASON.

WAY, November 22.

FROM COOLEY'S LANDING.

Special correspondence.) P. A. Bridges, of Eli, was here yesterday.

Miss Emma Patrick is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Thompson.

The cold wave interfered somewhat with the work of gathering corn, but to-day everybody seems to be trying to make up for loss of time.

The rain Monday night was very welcome to some of us, as there was fire in the woods and a stiff breeze threatened to carry the fire over a territory that would have resulted in much loss of property, but happily the rain came at the right moment.

Cousins of THE CHRONICLE, let's all take a deeper interest in aiding the editor to make our county paper more interesting, if possible, than it ever has been. It only requires a few moments every week to write him a few lines giving the most important news happenings, which are appreciated by us all.

COOLEY'S LANDING, Nov. 23.
